

Tidings of...Fellowship

The three of them heading to Leary's Disreputable Lounge to get further drunk when A shows off his Christmas tablet. "See picture? It's 3D, 4D, some fuckin D!"

"A cancer that kills within minutes!" B reads, as a multicolored big toenail fills the screen.

"Scaring respectable inebriates!" C snatches it and tosses it into Mercy Hospital's Dumpster

A climbs in as the other two proceed.

He is spitting when he finally gets to Leary's, but they're singing with Doctors and Nurses, and have saved him the round missed.
